

1940s

The Beginning

Started a new division solely managing foreign brand distribution under the name DESIGNER WORLD BRANDS & added more labels like INGERSOLL, INVICTA, and SANTA BARBARA POLO CLUB.

1940s

Dedicated brand management infrastructure empowered global fashion icons to flourish in the Indian marketplace.

1960s

International partnerships formed the backbone of a growing enterprise. By the mid-60s, Nagpals had become a trusted name in the Northern India trade circuit for precision components and watch batteries.

1960s

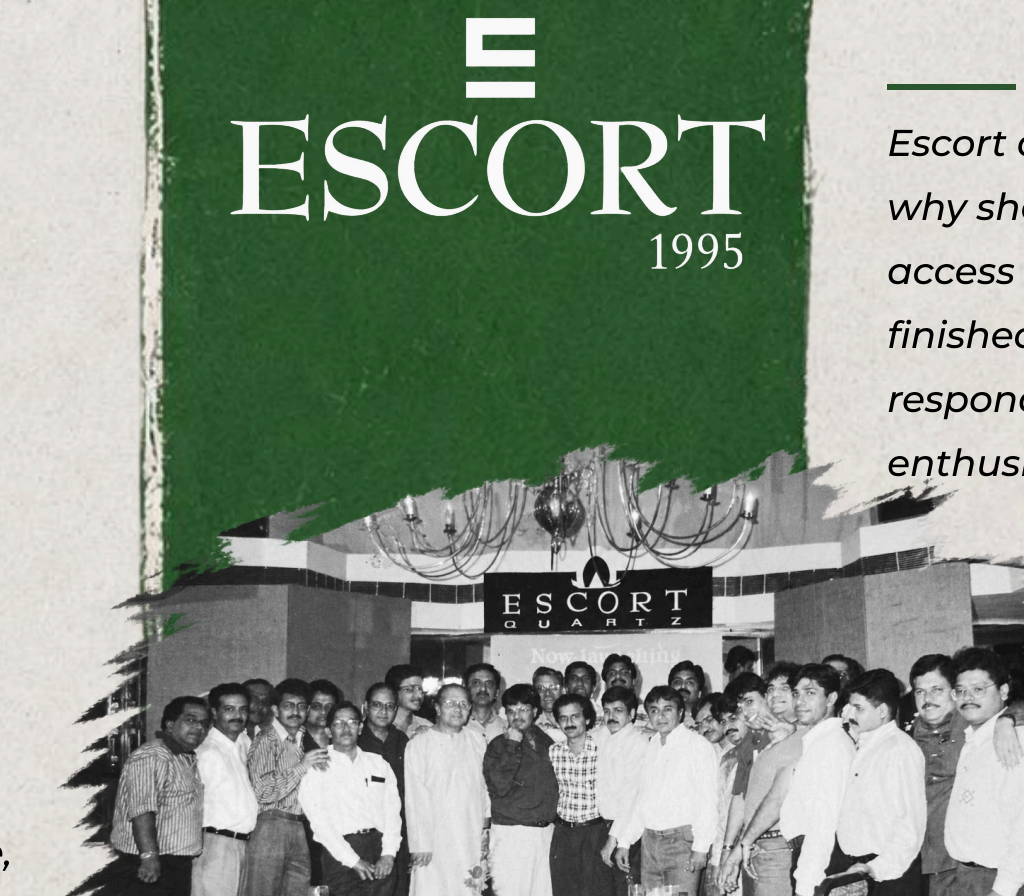

The 2nd Generation of Nagpal Watch.CO

This was when the 2nd generation of Nagpal's family entered the business, deepening roots in horology and building relationships with component suppliers across Northern India.

1976

'Nagpal's Bombay' was formed

This was when the 2nd generation of Nagpal's family entered the business, deepening roots in horology and building relationships with component suppliers across Northern India.

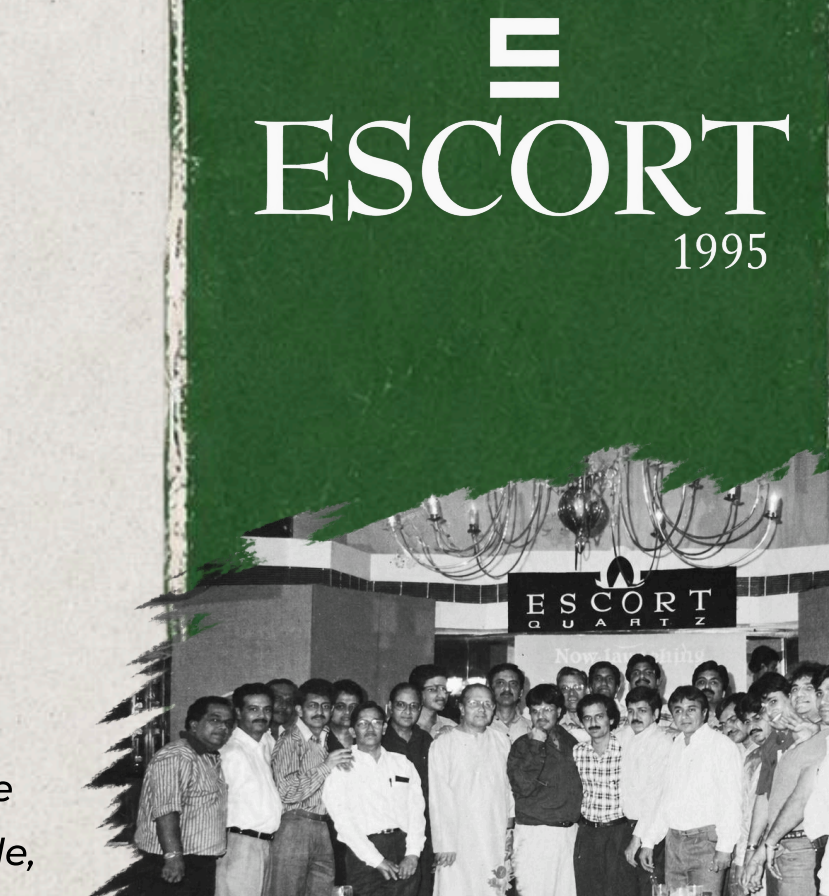

1976

This was the time when they travelled to international markets to import parts & components for direct distribution and during 1980s various BUTTON CELL brands tied up with NAGPALS BOMBAY for battery distribution all over India. Brands from Japan like MAXELL & Swiss like RENATA became a major area of company's focus for growth.

1991

D'Signer was not simply a product launch but a philosophical statement. At a time when Indian watchmaking was dominated by mass-market models, D'Signer chose craftsmanship over compromise and design over convention.

A Brand Is Born

D'SIGNER was introduced, a step into creating watches defined by design, quality, and individuality. One of the early Indian brands to design and manufacture to international horological standards.

1995

Style For All

ESCORT was launched to make timeless design more accessible, bringing style to a wider audience with robust everyday timepieces at honest prices.

1995

Escort answered a simple question: why shouldn't every Indian have access to a reliable, beautifully finished timepiece? The market responded with extraordinary enthusiasm.

1998

Bringing prestige Swiss and French horological brands to Indian retail counters established the Nagpal Group as an esteemed national distributor.

1998

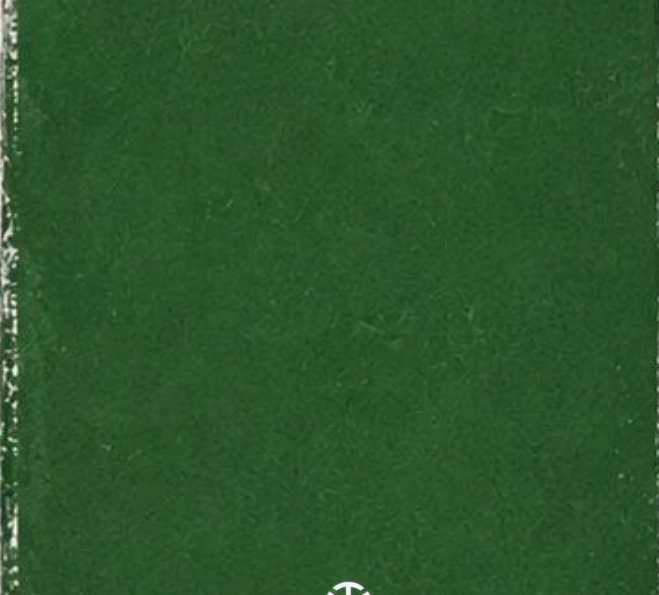

Introduction of Tissot in India

We were the ones to launch TISSOT watches in India as national distributors. We initiated the distribution for Tissot, Givenchy Paris, Christian Bernard Paris, and Rotary in India.

2004

D'signer Effects

Connecting brand messaging with high-quality custom corporate gifts allowed businesses across India to elevate their marketing initiatives and employee reward programs.

2004

We started a division purely in the corporate gifts & promotion business under the name D'SIGNER EFFECTS. Here the idea was to connect with all small and large organizations, offering all sorts of promotion gifts for schemes and marketing plans.

2010

DESIGNER WATCHES scaled production skills and managed largest volume B2B orders of watches in lakhs, delivering projects for esteemed groups like TATA INDICOM, REEBOK, NIKON, and PHARMA COMPANIES.

2010

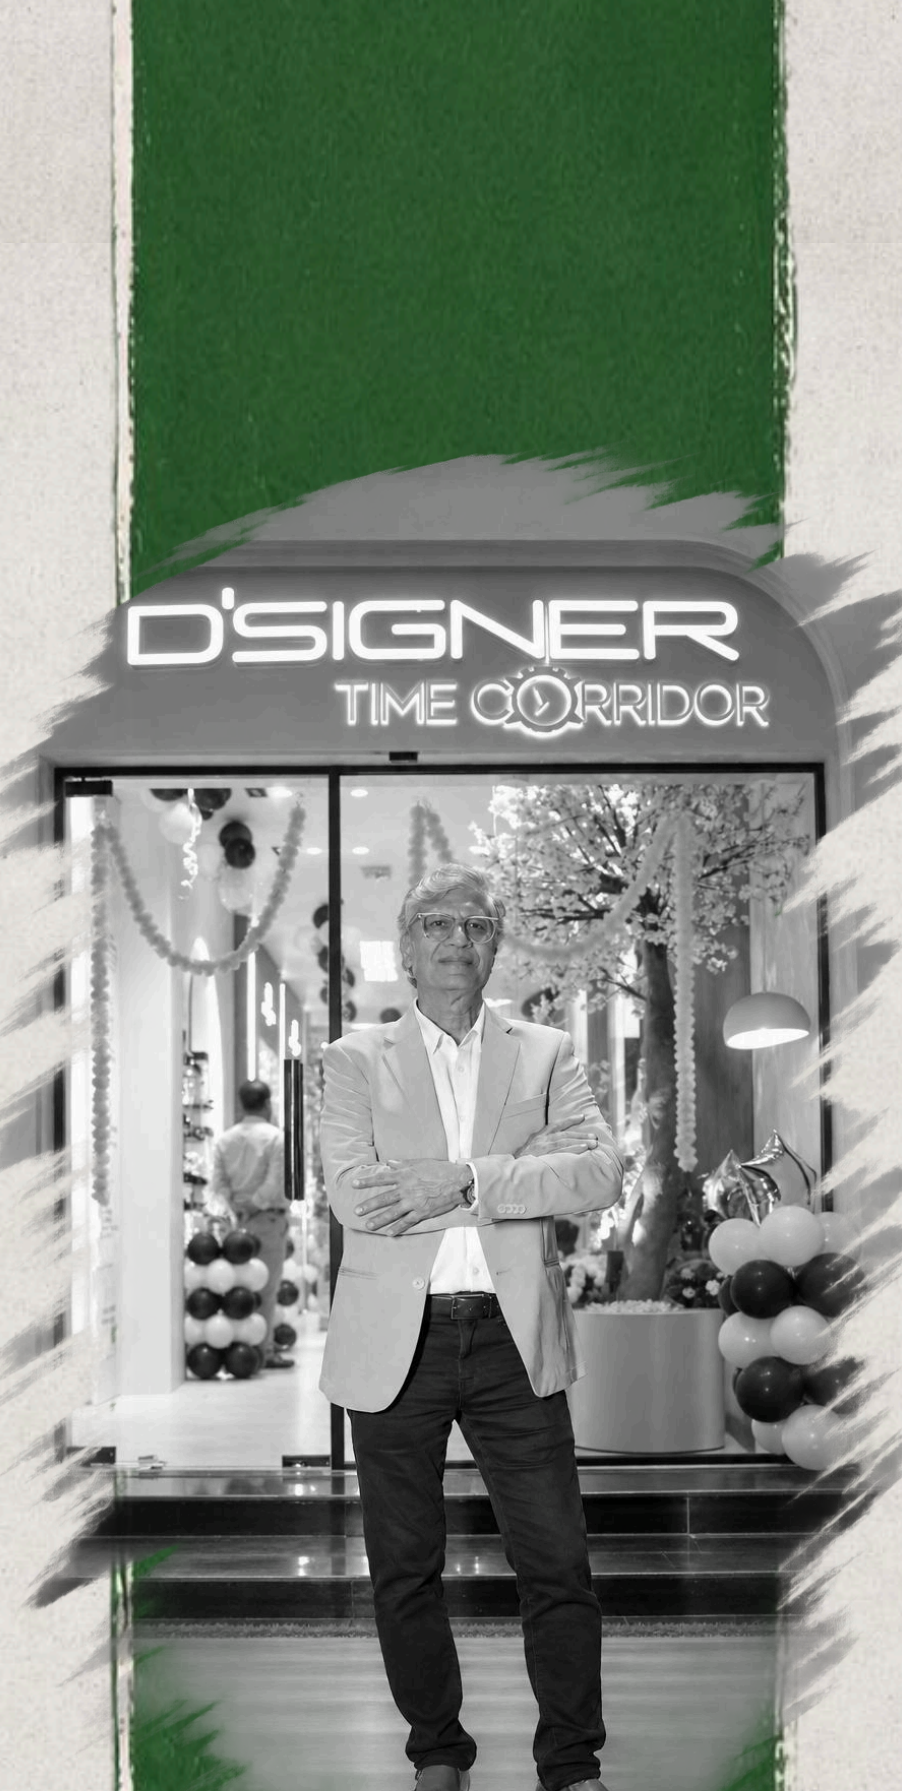

B2B & Corporate Gifting

B2B & Corporate Gifting became a very important focus as wristwatches became a strong category for business promotion and marketing plans for major corporates. Launched clocks & bags category under D'SIGNER for B2B requirements.

2013

Daniel Klein in India

Got exclusive distribution of Daniel Klein, a leading Turkish brand of watches and fashion accessories, in India.

2013
